Subject: Re: RFO - [REDACTED]

The client failed to report a speeding violation to her insurance provider when she got her initial quote and he sent premium amount to me which I submitted last month. When this was discovered, her monthly premium was raised and she paid the amount not covered by our approved RFO. Since I am submitting a new RFO for her July premium, the increased amount is reflected. Hope this clears up the confusion.

Hello Carrie,

Request additional information. There is a discrepancy from the previous amounts billed for the same insurance 6-month period of May 2017-October 2017. The supporting documentation dated 5/12/17 shows a payment schedule of $209.80, which includes monthly installment fee of $12.00 per month. Exclude the monthly installment fee ($209.80-$12.00 ) and the balance is $197.80.

The RPOS with documentation that was submitted in May 2017 (dated (4/30/2017) which was approved on 5/2/2017 paid 1st payment of $234.00 and a monthly premium of $186. The remaining monthly charges are $186.
